

Support Life-Changing Charities through the Combined Federal Campaign-Overseas

(Date) – Place, Installation Name – The Central Virginia Area Combined Federal Campaign (CVACFC), now in the second half of the 2016 season, has raised $XXXX to date. The annual workplace giving program gives uniformed and federal civilian personnel an opportunity to help those in need, at home and abroad, by embodying the spirit of the 2016 campaign: Show Some Love.

The campaign supports more than 2,600 national and international organizations as well as local organization that work to address the critical needs of those most vulnerable throughout the world. Some of these organizations provide support for military families, disaster survivors, veterans in need of aid, and animal welfare programs. Additionally, donors can take advantage of “CFC All-Around Giving,” which allows contributors to pledge to any of the local CFC charities around the United States. You can search the complete charity database online at cvacfc.org.

Here are just a few of the ways your donation can make a difference:

- $50 provides a comfort kit to a service member in the hospital.
- $75 supports technology to keep service members connected to their families.
- $150 helps military families keep a roof over their heads.

Contributors may make their pledge in one of three ways:

- Electronic payroll allotments through DFAS myPay, or EEX
- CFC Nexus payments using a credit card, debit card or electronic bank transfer
- Traditional paper pledge cards

Show Some Love to charities you care about by making a pledge through the CVACFC today. For more information, visit www.cvacfc.org or contact your CVACFC representative.

About the CVACFC
